

Ampawa

The name for coconut milk

Original quality for authentic Thai cuisine. Ampawa coconut milk is made only from the best coconuts in Thailand.

From the grated pulp, the highest technological knowledge is used to press the milk, which can be compared to freshly pressed coconut in aroma and rich taste. This premium coconut milk is pressed directly after peeling the best Thai coconuts. So the freshness and naturally white, rich and aromatic quality is captured in every drop.

NEW in PET - even better and fresher quality:

- Ideal for dosing,
- light resealable packaging with easy disposal,
- once opened, can be kept in the refrigerator for 5 days.

Animal welfare is important to us. Therefore, the coconuts for the Ampawa coconut milk are harvested without monkeys.
