

Leib und Gut bars | New variety cocoa hazelnut and redesign of existing articles

The range of bars under the Leib und Gut brand is getting an exciting new addition. The new cocoa hazelnut bar based on oat flakes is the perfect complement to the existing nut mix bar. The mixture of the best oat flakes, crunchy hazelnuts and fine cocoa makes the new bar a special treat.

The practical multipack contains three individually wrapped bars. Thanks to the triopack, the bars can be bought in stock and taken away individually.

Both the nut mix and the cocoa hazelnut bar are organic and vegan as well as gluten and lactose free. The products are delivered in a beautiful display box with 15 sales units each.

Also, the sesame brittle bar receives a new look. The bar comes in a new design but with an unchanged recipe.
